Last week's guest speaker, Will Wright spoke on the Teen Vocational Program. Will and several other retired professionals started this program as a way to education high school age students on professions that may interest them, which are not normally talked about. Will asked if there were any Rotarians that would like to participate in the program by talking with students about their vocation and what it takes to achieve become a professional. So many youth could benefit from your involvement in this program. If you are interested, contact Will Wright @ 541-267-2588
